OLD BUSINESS: Don Copple stated that mowing at the Outdoor Range is now completed for the year due to the arrival of colder weather. Several compliments were expressed about the match and how well they have been running this year with Special thanks to George Eberhardt for his work as Match Director. President Copple announced that the club would exhibit at the RKGun show in Louisville, KY and distributed numerous fliers containing club info. George Eberhardt announced that the memorial match for the late Wayne Mcleod brought in a total of $540.00 from match fees and donations to be split equally between the SIRAPC youth program as well as the Oldham County 4H shooting program that Wayne actively participated. George also reminded club members in attendance of the M1 Garand Clinic scheduled for November 6th at the indoor range at 8AM until approximately 4:30PM.

NEW BUSINESS: Secretary Ron Bekebrede announced that as of November, club members could begin paying their club dues for the coming year. Please mail a check to Ron or cash can be accepted if paying in person. President Don Copple announced that the club would be represented at the Orleans, IN gun show. Jamie Mckown announced that the Junior team was resuming practice at the indoor range on Sunday afternoons with several new shooters joining the existing members. The Juniors are expanding the program to also include Modern Military matches as well as pistol competition. He went on to inform the club that $2,000.00 was raised through the sale of raffle tickets with 4 winning tickets being sold by the club. After the funds match with MidwayUSA, the junior endowment has approximately $15,000.00 to support the program. Jamie also announced that there would be rimfire sporter practice on either Wednesday or Thursday evenings. Any one interested please email or text (preferred) Jamie McKown at 502-376-0750 or jasmckown@gmail.com. A motion regarding the submission of a previous donation from Doris Ooley to the SIRAPC junior program to be used on "giving day" to increase the 2:1 funds match was also approved and a club check was cut to Jamie to facilitate that process. President Don Copple announced that the propane tank was refilled at a cost of about $2.44 per gallon.
